PETITION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Raymond W. Clanton ("Clanton"), by his attorney, hereby petitions for leave to amend his pending application, so as to submit the attached amendment. In support thereof, the following is shown.

Under Section 1.65 of the Commission's rules, each applicant is required to keep its application current and report all changes in information previously supplied to the Commission. The amendment responds to this requirement, as it provides new information regarding the residence of the applicant. Good cause thus obtains for acceptance of the amendment. It is required to be filed. It will not improve the applicant's comparative position. It will not disrupt the Commission's processes, nor require the addition of hearing issues. It is filed with due diligence, coming less than 30 days since the change occurred.

Accordingly, the attached amendment should be accepted.
